8.1 General Safety Disclaimer

By purchasing, opening, installing, using, or otherwise handling any product designed, manufactured, produced, distributed, or sold by WrapOn Tools (including but not limited to the KnifeTucker, Blade Cage, Blade Cage Tank Stand, Torch Defender, utility knives, tucking tools, squeegees, propane torches, and propane tanks), the user acknowledges and agrees to the following:

WrapOn Tools, including its owners, employees, contractors, volunteers, vendors, distributors, resellers, and any other affiliated parties, shall not be held liable or responsible for any injury, loss, or damage — whether to person or property — arising from the improper use, misuse, modification, or failure to follow safety guidelines associated with any of its products.

All products must be used with extreme caution and only for their intended purpose as outlined by the manufacturer. This includes — but is not limited to — the unpacking, setup, installation, use, maintenance, and disposal of any tool or accessory.

Use of any WrapOn Tools product, whether purchased directly from the manufacturer or through any third-party retailer or distributor, constitutes an express agreement by the user to assume all associated risks and full personal responsibility for the safe handling and use of the product. The user expressly releases WrapOn Tools and all affiliated parties from any and all claims, demands, damages, or legal actions, including those arising from negligence.

If you do not accept these terms, do not purchase, use, or handle any product provided by WrapOn Tools.

9. Governing Law

These Terms follow the laws of the State of North Carolina.

10. Changes to Terms

We may update Terms. Changes effective immediately upon posting.
